

Robbery Bulletin

Date of Publication: April 11, 2012 Case Number: 20121000251

On Monday, April 9, 2012 two subjects assaulted and attempted to rob a female of her purse near the intersection of Little River Turnpike and Brentleigh Court. The victim resisted and refused to relinquish her purse. The suspects fled the scene. Information developed during the investigation and a subsequent K-9 track revealed that the suspects fled into the townhouse complex at Little River Turnpike and Logsdon Drive. The photographs below were obtained from surveillance video captured at a service station near the intersection of Little River Turnpike and Woodland Drive. The suspects apparently entered the gas station moments before the robbery. Anyone with information regarding the suspects is asked to contact Detective Middlebrooks.
